

Wascana Circuit Leadership Meeting: Your circuit counsellor is inviting representatives from all boards and committees of the Wascana Circuit churches to attend a gathering of fellow brothers and sisters in Christ who serve just like you. The purpose is to connect with fellow Lutherans and share in the challenges and blessings you are encountering as you serve your church in 2025. Not only will you find new resources and solutions, but also identify common challenges for the Circuit, Region, and Synod to work toward Godly solutions. Join us at Mount Olive Lutheran Church on February 15th @ 1pm-3pm. Any questions call/text Pastor Arron Gust at 306.606.9005

 Pastor Paulo has received a "Call" from Faith Lutheran Church, Surrey BC. Please keep him and his family in your prayers as he considers where God is leading him in his ministry at this time. Love and prayers to our beloved Pastor and family as he seeks God's direction!***

"Do the Things That Make for Unity"

Lutheran Hour Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler

Jesus crosses borders and even breaks down the barrier of death to do the things that make for unity: shared worship, shared mission, shared harvest.

READING OF THE GOSPEL OF LUKE 9:28-36 (Kevin)

²⁸ Now about eight days after these sayings he took with him Peter and John and James and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹ And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became dazzling white. ³⁰ And behold, two men were talking with him, Moses and Elijah, ³¹ who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³² Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they became fully awake they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. ³³ And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah" —not knowing what he said. ³⁴ As he was saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him!" ³⁶ And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.

Interesting fact!

Songs for Souls has raised over 90,000.00 towards our Shepherds Pie meals in the 13 years since we began holding this fundraiser!

Thanks for your support!! How awesome is our God!!!

Do you know what 'Deus o abençoé' means?

Plan to come and enjoy fellowship and learning with members of our NBLC family who are working on English skills! And maybe we can learn a word or two of their native language as well! Come join us Sunday morning at 9:30am in the church basement to enjoy fellowship and learning with your church family!

Grief Support Group: GriefShare is a special weekly seminar and support group which will offer help and encouragement after the death of a loved one. The 13 week course includes DVD presentations from professionals, discussion and sharing time and a workbook to use at home and with the group. Classes will be held at Mount Olive Lutheran Church on Saturdays from 1-3pm in the Lounge, starting February 22nd and will run until May 17th. If you want more information or want to register to attend, contact the Mount Olive church office at 306-543-9744 or call Linda Turnquist at 306-552-5321. Or register online at <https://www.griefshare.org/groups/257466>.

Come join us for our next PRAISE AND WORSHIP here at NBLC on Friday Feb 21st at 7pm. You will be in for a beautiful evening of singing and fellowship in a casual atmosphere sure to be enjoyed by all who attend! Bring a friend and come sing with us!

READING OF NEHEMIAH 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10 (Kevin)

And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate. And they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses that the LORD had commanded Israel.² So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could understand what they heard, on the first day of the seventh month.³ And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law. ⁵ And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people, and as he opened it all the people stood. ⁶ And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. ⁸ They read from the book, from the Law of God, clearly, and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept as they heard the words of the Law. ¹⁰ Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

READING OF THE EPISTLE OF 1 CORINTHIANS 12:12-31

¹² For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves^[a] or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. ¹⁴ For the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵ If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? ¹⁸ But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰ As it is, there are many parts,^[b] yet one body. ²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²² On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,²³ and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty,²⁴ which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,²⁵ that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶ If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. ²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸ And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰ Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹ But earnestly desire the higher gifts.
