Bent Necks and a Better Brother

Lutheran Hour Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler

"The Book of Genesis is no fairy tale. It depicts real people—people, like us, with half-truths, crooked ways, and sore necks--but also the God Who created us and bears with us because He loves us."
(Genesis 27:35-36)

Do you remember packing up and getting ready to leave home? Maybe you were sharing a house with some folks. Maybe you had an apartment lined up. Maybe you were packing up your books and heading off to school of some kind. My mother watched me packing and suggested I take along a Bible. I hadn't read my Bible since confirmation class, but I agreed. When I settled into my apartment, I took it off the shelf and started to read (it was from the book of Revelation!). I had no idea what I was reading. I put the Bible down wondering, "Does anyone understand this?"

If you have ever felt this way, I have good news for you. Our New Beginnings "Time in the Word" video discussion group is starting up again this Friday, September 6th at 9 am. We've been at this for a good while. We take a look at Scripture and seek its meaning for our lives today. If you are interested, let me know by phone, text or email and I will make sure that you receive the video link each week. And if you can't attend every week, but would like the freedom to drop in when you can, that's not a problem. OLD TESTAMENT READING – DEUTERONOMY 6:1-9 (Vince)

The Greatest Commandment

6 “Now this is the commandment—the statutes and the rules—that the Lord your God commanded me to teach you, that you may do them in the land to which you are going over, to possess it, 2 that you may fear the Lord your God, you and your son and your son's son, by keeping all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, all the days of your life, and that your days may be long. 3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and be careful to do them, that it may go well with you, and that you may multiply greatly, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, has promised you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.

4 “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. 5 You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your, might. 6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. 7 You shall teach them diligently to your children and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. 8 You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. 9 You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

BIBLE READING OF THE EPISPTLE ACTS 2:42-47

(Vince)

The Fellowship of the Believers

42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. 43 And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. 44 And all who believed were together and had all things in common. 45 And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. 46 And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

BIBLE READING OF GOSPEL I PETER 2:1-10

(Vince)

A Living Stone and a Holy People

So put away all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander. 2 Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— 3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

4 As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, 5 you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 For it stands in Scripture: “Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

GOSPEL READING CON'T

7 So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone," 8 and "A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. "They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. 9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
