OLD TESTAMENT

ISAIAH 12:1-6

You will say in that day: “I will give thanks to you, O Lord, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. “Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the Lord God is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.” With joy, you will draw water from the wells of salvation. And you will say in that day: “Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted. “Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be made known in all the earth. Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.”

In-person attendance last Sunday was 35 persons.

Thank you for this week's offerings totaling $885.00

THE GOSPEL

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them. “So he told them this parable: “There was a man who had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.’ And he divided his property between them. 13Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything.

“But when he came to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants.”’ And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.’ And they began to celebrate. Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.’ But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, ‘Look, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!’ And he said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.’”

Dear NBLC.

We have lost 2 well-loved, long-time members of our New Beginnings Family this past month.

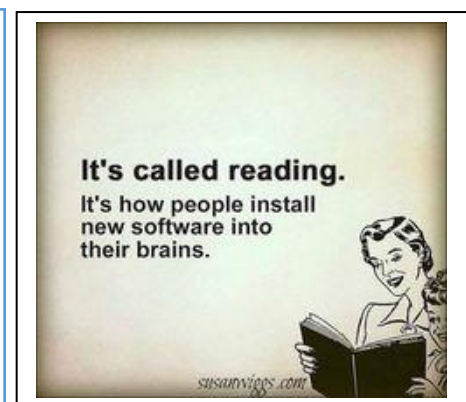

GRACE RAINE passed away Feb 24th in Airdrie Alberta. Grace (and Jim) were well-loved members of New Beginnings Church for many, many years and participated in many activities including Souls Harbour meals and lunches for Thomson School. As Steve put it "She was a strong determined and loving mother whose nurturing and generosity was at the heart of her love of family. During her illness, she was able to reach out to her family to reassure us all that she loved us and was at peace. She beat COVID at 85 but Cancer wouldn't let her win at 86. Love you mom... Enjoy walking with Jesus!". She will definitely be missed by all her family at NBLC!!

JESSIE HOVE went home to Jesus on Wed Mar 15th. We had the days before and until the last moments, that we could pray and sing together the Christian faith, faith in which she died in peace. She especially wanted the song, "Because He lives I can face tomorrow". At that moment she said to the pastor to "sing fast and in a happy way this song, because it represents wonderful news from God". Jessie (and Ivan) were members of New Beginning almost right from our start and will be missed by all who knew her! Her infectious laugh and welcoming smile were a reflection of God's Love to all who met her. Our NBLC family has lost a precious member, but she is at peace now with her Lord, by faith.

"I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die". (John 11:25-26)

God has given each of you a gift from His great variety of Spiritual Gifts. Use them well to serve one another.

You may have noticed or been aware of a new face at New Beginnings – Martin Jagnow - Isabel Brum's fiancé. He is with us until July after which he will be travelling to seminary in Ontario. He is currently living with the Brum family. In order for him to get more of a feel for the English language and Canadian culture we'd like to ask the congregation if there would be people who might like to have him stay with them for a period of time - to be determined by each party (could be a day or a few days or more). If you have an extra bedroom - like we do - would you be willing to host him? Please let me know - I will coordinate who and where and for how long the hosting will be. Please call me (306) 541-4085 or email cthomas@sasktel.net for more information or to take part in this. Thanks for your consideration. We can start doing this as soon as there are volunteers.
